Cookie Cocktails

By Miranda Jilka

Let's face it, there comes a time when all you want for Christmas is not your two front teeth, and the toys on your list come from the Mac store instead of the toy store. If you're nostalgic for some of that holiday magic you enjoyed so much as a kid, have yourself a merry little Christmas by combining the cookies that you used to leave out for Saint Nick with the adult beverages you enjoy as an adult. It's sure to bring some holiday cheer and remind you that it really is the most wonderful time of year.
